Sussman Shank Celebrates 18 Years on Oregon's '100 Best Companies to Work for' List

MARCH 01, 2024

Sussman Shank is honored to announce our recognition as one of the “100 Best Companies to Work for in Oregon” by Oregon Business Magazine. In the 2024 rankings, we ranked 26th this year, solidifying our place as one of just three law firms included on the medium-sized company list. This marks our 18th year of inclusion, making Sussman Shank the longest-standing law firm to earn this accolade.

The rankings are a result of a comprehensive evaluation, considering key factors that impact workplace satisfaction. These factors include work environment; management and communications; mission and goals; career development and learning; and benefits and compensation.

This achievement reflects Sussman Shank's commitment to nurturing a positive work environment for our employees and fostering a culture centered on excellence. As a firm, we understand the significance of our team members in our success, and this recognition serves as a testament to their dedication and contributions.
