Sussman Shank LLP Announces New Firm Partners

JANUARY 26, 2023

Sussman Shank LLP is pleased to announce that Steven Cade, Melanie Choch, and Tyler Volm have been named partners of the firm.

Steven Cade

Steven Cade has over a decade of diverse litigation experience, including commercial litigation, construction law, products liability, elder, and transportation law. In addition, he handles appeals of various matters in Oregon appellate courts.

Steven is committed to his community and has provided pro bono service to victims of domestic violence and to local civic organizations.

Melanie Choch

Melanie brings over 20 years of experience as a diverse and highly-skilled business transactional attorney. She has practiced in both the US and Canada, serving clients with their domestic and global operations. She provides advice on business transactions, intellectual property, policy, risk management and governance matters. In addition to her many years in private practice, Melanie served as in-house counsel for five years.

Melanie works with clients across a wide range of industries and businesses at all stages of development to guide them through start-up, expansion, and succession or divestiture. She is adept at finding practical solutions to meet each client's unique objectives.

Tyler Volm

Tyler Volm is experienced in business transactions and civil litigation, with a focus on labor and employment matters. As a Portland native, Tyler has a well-rounded understanding of the local and regional economies, helping him tailor solutions for companies of all sizes and industries. His understanding of how business needs blend with employment law helps him offer creative solutions in both the boardroom and courtroom.
