Sussman Shank Recognized in Portland's 2020 Most Diverse Law Firms List

FEBRUARY 27, 2020

Sussman Shank is proud to be recognized in the Portland Business Journal's Most Diverse Law Firm list. This is the firm's fourth year on the list.

At Sussman Shank, we strive to develop a culture that authentically brings the perspectives and contributions of all people to the table. We are proud to be recognized for seeking and promoting diversity, and we will continue to have an open, fair, and inclusive workplace.

The Portland Business Journal's research included firms with more than 20 local attorneys and the list's methodology is based on five factors: share of metro-area women attorneys, share of metro-area racial minority attorneys, share of metro-area LGBTQ attorneys, share of metro-area women partners, and share of metro-area racial minority partners. All five percentages are summed and firms are ranked accordingly.
