Ann Chapman has nearly forty years of experience in the bankruptcy field. She specializes in representing individuals and small businesses in Chapter 7 (liquidation) and Chapter 13 (wage earner and small business reorganization) cases, with a primary focus on debtor representation.

Ann has earned recognition for her professional achievements, including her public speaking on bankruptcy topics at regional and local levels, her pro bono efforts, and her professionalism as a member of the bar. She has maintained an A/V rating from Martindale-Hubbell for over 25 years and has been named a Super Lawyer in the consumer area for more than a decade. In 2014, she received the William N. Stiles Award from the Debtor-Creditor section, honoring her significant contributions to the section and the public.

"I have to thank you again for all of your hard work, knowledge, time, and help you have provided me (getting through all this)! I truly appreciate what you have done. I think you are the best expert! I couldn't have found anyone better."

"Ann, I know this is your business, but I can't tell you what your guidance has meant to Pat and me through this bankruptcy process. Your compassion and understanding have really made swallowing our fate a bit easier. So, thank you. You have a thankless job at times but know we are so appreciative!"

"A note to say thank you for your help during a most difficult time in my life. You and your staff attended to everything in a fashion that gave me total confidence in you and them. I dreaded Friday for months and it went so well. You are great!!! And please pass this on to your staff... they always treated me with respect and knew who I was when I called and enabled me to feel good about calling. Have a great week. If there is ever anything I can do for you please do not hesitate to ask."

"Ann and her staff's top-notch professionalism with an unexpected but very appreciated warm personal touch during a rough patch in our lives AND an experience that was based on a workable plan that now has become our daily habit as we close this chapter and move on into a brighter future. A triple-combination that delivers success! Thanks!"

"Thank you for being an awesome attorney and helping me get through a really bad time! I will always be grateful for your kindness and patience with my payment plan."

"Thanks again to Ann Chapman and the team there for their grace and their professionalism, courtesy, and excellent work at every turn."

"I wanted to send you a note and thank you for the support and help you have given to me over the past five years. Your caring and listening ear really helped me through this. I appreciate it so much. Going through bankruptcy was a learning experience for me. I know once I can find employment somewhere I will be OK with my spending. I am not perfect, but I am so much better."

PERSONAL INTERESTS

Ann is an avid golfer who has competed as an amateur since 2014, initially with the Executive Women's Golf Association (EWGA) and later with the LPGA Amateurs after the EWGA acquisition in 2018. She was part of the EWGA team "The Green Gang," which won the EWGA Cup Championship at the Reunion Golf Resort in Orlando, Florida, competing against 36 other teams. Later, Ann and four teammates from "The Green Gang" joined three others to form the "Oregon Birdie Hunters." This team went on to win the 2022 LPGA Amateur Cup at Horseshoe Bay Golf Resort in Texas, becoming two-time national champions in amateur team match-play competition.

Ann continues to actively participate in golf tournaments.
