My Assistant

Linda Case 503.243.1661 x273

Patrick is an associate in the firm's Litigation Department, with a focus on commercial and civil litigation. Patrick has diverse litigation experience, having handled cases in real estate, construction, and contractual disputes. He has also represented individuals and businesses in matters involving wrongful death, personal injury, employment, premises liability, and claims against physicians and healthcare providers.

He leans on his prior experience working for both plaintiff and defense side firms, offering a nuanced perspective into all aspects of his cases. Patrick has achieved favorable results for clients, including securing summary judgment in a premises liability dispute and negotiating a resolution that minimized liability and avoided prolonged litigation in a construction defect matter. He provides strategic counsel throughout litigation, mediation, and arbitration.
