Steve is the Chief Operating Officer of Sussman Shank LLP and has over 35 years of experience in the legal industry. He is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations and business strategy of the firm. This includes financial administration, human resources, personnel management, strategic planning, administrative and support services, and recruiting.

Steve serves on the firm's Management Committee and works closely with Senior Management and Department Chairs to develop and advance operational, financial, and practice management initiatives. He is responsible for ensuring that the firm operates efficiently and effectively, and that it delivers high-quality services to its clients.

In recent years, Steve has played an integral role in the firm's national recruiting efforts, hybrid workplace initiatives and management, succession planning, and the ongoing efforts towards law firm modernization.
